

TO SEE ON THE WAY...

✓ the Morzine Dranse river:

The source of this river is found high above Morzine in the Vallée d'Aulps. It provides water for the whole valley and has many tributaries. Further down the Vallée d'Aulps, the Morzine Dranse joins the Abondance Dranse, becoming the "Dranse". It flows into Lake Geneva from an area called the Dranse Delta, a protected nature reserve.

✓ culture:

When you arrive in the centre of Saint Jean d'Aulps, head for the neo-Gothic church, which houses the shrine of Saint Guérin.

Walks in Vallée d'Aulps

On the banks of the River Dranse

Directions ...

Starting point: municipal football ground

Follow the path along the banks of Morzine's River Dranse towards Saint Jean d'Aulps.

Look out for PDIPR signposting (posts with directional panels, or smaller posts with arrows and arrows fixed to walls).

The route will take you along the right and left hand side of the river.

Once you arrive in the centre of Saint Jean d'Aulps, head uphill 200m in the direction of Montriond, until you reach the tourist office.

To get home, either go the way you came, or take the Balad'Aulps Bus from in front of the tourist office. Be sure to take the Montriond service, stopping at Glière near the football ground car park.

Detour

Start from the centre of Saint Jean d'Aulps. Follow the footpath along the River Dranse towards Montriond. Return home the same way or take the Balad'Aulps Bus.
